Please note that a criminal conviction is not normally a deterrent to mentoring and can actually be an inspiration to a mentee. However, if you have a conviction for a sexual offense you will not be able to mentor with our program. Lying on this application is a serious offense and you will be disqualified.

By signing this application, I agree to the following stipulations:

- To the best of my ability, I am making a commitment to a young person to mentor them for two years.
- If a mentee asks, I will not give them any money, but will instead refer them to the SEEED Executive Director, Director of Operations, or Director of Programs.
- If a mentee is under the age of 18, I will always have one other adult present with me, including transporting that mentee.
